

Today I met... Mr. Downey

By: Kaitlynn Rowe

Mr. Downey, our new school counselor, is thrilled to join our small Lutheran school. When asked, Mr. Downey could not say what was the hardest part of being the counselor but called the experience “wonderful”. He hopes to get students connected with things such as scholarships. He stated that he moved here to get his kids a Lutheran education at Immanuel and for the opportunity to be a counselor at a Lutheran school. He is glad he can include his faith into counseling and said that “when you are counselling as a Christian everything comes through your faith”. He also said when you are a counselor at a public school the main reason for good behavior is rules, but that at a Christian school your faith is included. Mr. Downey is involved in Immanuel and in his free time enjoys working on cars and his newly purchased RV.
